

SITLA

Funds in Schools

NOVEMBER 2021
BOARD MEETING

Kauri Sue Hamilton School

The Kauri Sue Hamilton school in Jordan School District is a west-side school for students with severe, multiple disabilities. It is located in Riverton, on land donated by Cletus and Sharon Hamilton in gratitude for the education Jordan School District provided for their daughter, Kauri Sue Hamilton.

Kauri Sue Hamilton School is:

est. August 26, 2009

- A beautiful 2-story structure which houses the district's Child Development Center, Health services, and the Jordan School District Audiology Team.
- The facility includes a swimming pool, two playgrounds, two multi-sensory environment rooms, therapy treatment rooms, a health clinic, 21 classrooms, a cafeteria and gymnasium.
- The school opened on August 26, 2009 with approx. 150 students who formerly attended Jordan Valley School.

MISSION STATEMENT

To work collaboratively to maximize student achievement, build relationships, teach communication skills, foster independence, nurture creativity and improve quality of life for each student within their home, school and community.

2020-2021 SCHOOL YEAR

Staff developed a new curriculum and assessment program

GOALS

Focus on the areas of Language Arts, Math, and Behavior

2021-2022

The School Community Council's LAND Trust Plan

STAFF TRAINING

Much of the trust funds were used for Mandt Training over summer

What is Mandt Training?

Mandt helps organizations develop a culture that provides emotional, psychological, and physical safety for everyone, where they can say that “In this place, and with these people, I feel safe.”

A look inside...

Music is one of the favorite ways educators at the Kauri Sue Hamilton School interact with their students.

Thank You!

We hope to provide you with more updates and feedback from the Kauri Sue Hamilton School and their Community Council soon!

In the meantime, you can find more information on their website at:

kaurisuehamilton.jordandistrict.org